

Name : Evina Eva

Speciality : software engineering

Matricule :20210539

LAB1 Assignment and 2

1 software engineering is part of système engineering process do you agree ? Justify your answer

Answer

I disagree software engineering id not part of system engineering process because system engineering involve the top down development of a. System functional and physical requirement while software engineering is a process of develeping software produc

2- what is software crisis

Answer

Software crisis can be define as a situation were we meet difficulty in writing usefull and efficient computer program in the require time

3-what are the responsibility of software engineer

Answer

- performe system modelling simulation plus evaluation to provide suitable software solution

- To design and prepare assemblers utility program compilers and operating system to accomplis custom business need

- participate to design develop bubbleshoot and analyse software programme

4-component base software engineering allow faster dilevery state whether this state is true or false justify your answer

Answer

True because due to the using previously tested component they produce are more reliable system of a faster rate